- D. The Publisher undertakes to observe the provisions of any Law and customary business practices regarding the protection of intellectual property rights of the Advertiser and to cooperate with the Advertiser to protect such rights;
The Publisher undertakes to inform the Advertiser in writing of all instances known to it in which the Advertiser's right to its name and trademark, trade name, domain, Promotional Material or other, are disputed or violated.

7.3 The Publisher is not permitted to use the Advertiser's and/or its Affiliated Entities' trademark(s), domains, trade names, Promotional Material and/or other in any paid search activity, whether this is in ad text, copy or display URLs without the prior written approval of the Advertiser.

7.4 The Publisher is not permitted to use the Advertiser's and/or its Affiliated Entities' trademark, domain, trade names, Promotional Material and/or other in their ad-copy paid media to advertise on behalf of the Advertiser without the written approval from the Advertiser.

7.5 The Publisher recognizes that the Advertiser holds all rights to the Advertiser's intellectual property and that all intangible assets related to the Advertiser's name, trademark, trade names, domains and Promotional Material created as a result of the performance of this Agreement or by other means are the property of the Advertiser.

7.6 The Advertiser may cancel the non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use the Advertiser's name, domain, trade names, trademark and Promotional Material and/or other for free at any time, at its absolute discretion and without the need to provide any reasons for such cancellation.

7.7 The Publisher undertakes the following:

- A. to post on the Publisher site specific warnings and disclaimers in relation to the provision of the specific services by the Advertiser and/or its Affiliated Entities;
- B. to add all Advertiser's brand terms as negative keywords in all paid search activities in order to avoid any broad matching issues;
- C. to clearly disclose the relationship between the Publisher and the Advertiser in any material produced or used by a Publisher anywhere, including without limitation blogs, publications and news sites, disclosing both non-financial and financial relationships where applicable.
- D. to follow and comply with the Advertiser's advertising and/or other guidelines, as provided to the Publisher by the Advertiser from time to time, at the Advertiser's sole and absolute discretion.

7.8 The Publisher and/or any of its Affiliated Entities shall not, directly or indirectly:

- A. Register or use domains, subdomains, keywords, search terms or other identifiers containing the Advertiser's and/or its Affiliated Entities trademark(s), domains, (a part of the Advertiser's name), the Advertiser's trade names, the Advertiser's name or any words or depictions confusingly similar to any of the aforementioned in any language without the Advertiser's prior written consent;
- B. Bid on or purchase internet placement rights for a similar domain name or any part or similarities thereof in any manner in any of its digital advertising and/or promotions, including but not limited to, internet and web advertising;
- C. Include a similar domain name or any part thereof, or similar variations, translations or misspellings, in the meta tags of any web site code. This includes the meta title, meta keywords or meta description;
- D. Purchase, obtain or use, directly or indirectly, any keywords from third party platforms so as to redirect traffic to the similar domain name;
- E. Purchase a similar domain name or any part thereof, or any variations, translations or misspellings thereof, for use in text links, banner ads, pop-up ads or any other type of ad that could be associated with a keyword campaign;
- F. Use false advertising or in general false and/or fraudulent methods for attracting new Clients online, launching the search engine and leading the search engine users astray, including, but not limited to the use of the Advertiser's website URL with a Tracking Link in the contextual advertising systems, knowingly falsely redirecting users to a different website on the Internet;
- G. Send traffic through automatic redirects on a website page;

- H. Use ad fraud, including but not limited to impression/click/conversion/data fraud, and fraudulent traffic sources, including but not limited to botnets/toolbars/click farms/other methods of automated/fraudulent traffic such as automated bots and super cookies;
- I. The use of questionable traffic sources including but not limited to parked domains, error pages, juvenile, death & tragedy, sexually suggestive and violent content are not permitted;
- J. Publish advertisement-like information on websites which contain or link to websites that violate the Law, industry standards, ethics and morality;

- L. Use malicious software with pop-up advertisements or advertisement-like mailings to email addresses without consent to receive said mailings.
- M. Purchase keywords with reference to Xtream Markets and/or other misspellings of the name on payper-click search engines to drive traffic to Partner's own website.
- N. Purchase trademarks which include the word "Xtream Markets" in any language.
- O. Bid or appear on misspells or variations of "Xtream Markets" brand searches.
- P. Attract Potential Clients and/or Introduced Clients via private communication (i.e. private messages on social networks or messengers, personal emails, phone calls or face-to-face communication)

8. Reporting and Payment

8.1 Unless otherwise agreed between the Parties, reporting numbers are based on my.xtrememarkets.com dashboard reports of the Advertiser and/or any other databases and/or dashboards that the Advertiser may decide from time to time. The report shall summarize data including but not limited to, the number of actions and/or installs and/or impressions and/or other according to the payment model agreed between the Parties, the amount of payment of the reporting month and other variables of the products.

8.2 If the Advertiser believes that fraud has occurred, it must take reasonable steps to notify the Publisher within a period of two (2) weeks of closing of a lead transaction and provide evidence. Failure of Advertiser to notify Publisher of any fraudulent activity within 2 (two) weeks of closing of lead transaction shall not waive any right or claim of Advertiser against Publisher.

8.3 Without prejudice to the rest of the provisions of the present Agreement, the Advertiser shall process its payment of the previous billing cycle to the Publisher on or before the 31st day of the following month (hereinafter referred to as "monthly payments"), subject to the provisions of clause

8.4 Moreover, payment of Publisher Commission may be delayed or not be paid or annulled/cancelled or suspended in the following circumstances:

- A. If the activity in the Partner Account or any other account managed or controlled by the Publisher or any of the Introduced Clients assigned to the Publisher is considered by the Advertiser as suspicious.
- B. If the Advertiser determines that the Publisher Commission is derived from activity related, directly or indirectly, to fraudulent or illegal or deceptive practices.

- C. The Introduced Client performs actions in bad faith, as determined in the Advertiser's sole discretion.
- D. If the Partner Account, any account maintained in the name of the Publisher or attracted Introduced Client Account is blocked and/or placed in the archive in a manner required by sections of this Agreement or the "Temporary Block of the Client Account" and "Inactive and Dormant Client Accounts" of the Client agreement and/or General Business Terms between the Advertiser and the Client if applicable. The provisions of this clause are applicable to the full period of archiving and/or blocking
 - a. of Partner Account and/or any account maintained in the name of the Publisher or Introduced Client linked to the Publisher;
- E. If there is reasonable suspicion by the Advertiser based on direct or circumstantial evidence (as determined by the Advertiser in its sole discretion), that auto-referral activity (that is when the Publisher gets or attempts to get Publisher Commission from referring himself or an otherwise controlled account by the Publisher as an Introduced Client) has occurred, or a reasonable suspicion that the Publisher has allowed relatives, friends and other people he knows to register through his link or do so himself on their behalf;.
- F. If there is reasonable suspicion by the Advertiser based on direct or circumstantial evidence of
 - a. Fraud Traffic;
- G. If the Introduced Clients are not Qualified Traders;
- H. The trading volume of all the Qualified Traders introduced by the Publisher is deemed in the
 - a. Advertiser's sole discretion, disproportionate to the segmented payout;
- I. The Publisher has failed to satisfy any requests from the Advertiser in relation to due diligence and/or know your customer (KYC) and/or your business (KYB) and/or similar requirements.
- J. Where applicable, the Qualified Trader deposits in an account type that does not generate Publisher Commission.
- K. Where applicable, the Publisher does not meet the minimum standard of the key performance indicator.
- L. If the Advertiser determines at its sole discretion that the Publisher has breached any provision of this Agreement and/or performed any actions and/or omissions in violation of Laws and/or regulations.

8.5 The Publisher undertakes to pay all tax, money transfer fees, currency conversion fees, and other mandatory payments applicable to it resulting from this Agreement.

9. Restrictions, Amendments and Termination

9.1 The Advertiser at its discretion may put restrictions in the operation of the Partner Accounts for any of the following reasons:

- A. If there is any suspicion that the Publisher is involved in any illegal/fraudulent transactions.
- B. If there is a suspicion that the Publisher violates any of the conditions of this Agreement or any term of the Client Agreement between the Advertiser and the Publisher as a Client or any other documents concluded between the Publisher as a Client with the Advertiser.
- C. In the event that the Publisher is also a Client of the Advertiser and any of the aforementioned events occur, then the Advertiser may also put restrictions in the operation of any of the accounts in the name of the Publisher.

9.2 The Advertiser has the right to amend the terms of this Agreement, by posting the updated version on any of its Sites, as well as the Publisher Commission at any time with immediate effect without giving any prior notice to the Publisher.

9.3 The Advertiser may terminate the Agreement and the Publisher's status with immediate effect for any of the following reasons:

- A. If the Publisher violates the conditions of the Agreement;
- B. In the event that the Publisher is also a Client of the Advertiser and the Publisher violates any term of the Client Agreement between the Advertiser and the Publisher as a Client or any other documents concluded between the Publisher as a Client of the Advertiser;
- C. If the Advertiser has cause to believe that the Publisher is not putting enough effort into promoting the Advertiser's services;
- D. Further to a regulatory and/or governmental request or similar regarding the relationship between the Publisher and the Advertiser and/or its Affiliates;
- E. The Publisher is subject to an investigation by a regulatory or governmental authority or similar;
- F. The Advertiser reasonably suspects that the Publisher is involved in money laundering, fraud, or other criminal activities.

9.4 In the event that the Publisher is also a Client of the Advertiser and any of the aforementioned events occur then the Advertiser may also terminate with immediate effect the Client Agreement between the Advertiser and the Publisher as a Client.

9.5 The Advertiser may terminate the Agreement without cause by giving 48 (forty-eight) hours written notice to the Publisher.

9.6 Without prejudice to the rest of the provisions of this Agreement, where termination of the Agreement and the Publisher's status takes place, the Advertiser shall pay Publisher Commission for all Introduced Clients actually introduced before termination, excluding the instances directly provided for by this Agreement, until the effective termination date. The Publisher shall not be entitled to receive any Publisher Commission from any Introduced Clients generated after the effective termination date.

9.7 Termination of the Publisher's status shall not preclude the Advertiser from subsequently entering into contractual relationships with Introduced Clients introduced by the Publisher.

9.8 The Publisher shall no longer be allowed to use the Advertiser's name and/or trade name and/or trademark following the termination of the Publisher's status and the Publisher is obliged to return to the Advertiser any Promotional Material.

10. Protection Of Personal Data

10.1 The Publisher undertakes to observe and abide by all provisions of Laws and regulations for the protection of personal data for the purpose of fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement.

11. Confidentiality

11.1 Confidential Information means all confidential information relating to the Service which the Discloser or its Representatives or any of its Affiliated Entities, or their Representatives directly or indirectly discloses, or makes available, to the Recipient or its Representatives or its Affiliated Entities, or their Representatives, before, on or after the date of this agreement. This includes:

- A. the fact that discussions and negotiations are taking place concerning the Service and the status of those discussions and negotiations.
- B. the existence and terms of this agreement.
- C. all confidential or proprietary information relating to:

the business, affairs, customers, employees, clients, suppliers' plans, intentions, or market opportunities of the Discloser or of any of the Discloser's Affiliated Entities; and operations, processes, product information, know-how, technical information, designs, trade secrets or software of the Discloser, or of any of the Discloser's Affiliated Entities;

- D. any information, findings, data or analysis derived from Confidential Information; any other information that is identified as being of a confidential or proprietary nature; but excludes any information referred to in Clause

11.2 Information is not Confidential Information if:

- A. it is, or becomes, generally available to the public other than as a direct or indirect result of the information being disclosed by the Recipient or its Representatives or by any of the Recipient's Affiliated Entities or their Representatives in breach of this agreement (except that any compilation of otherwise public information in a form not publicly known shall still be treated as Confidential Information);
- B. it was available to the Recipient on a non-confidential basis prior to disclosure by the Discloser;
- C. it was, is, or becomes available to the Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a person who, to the Recipient's knowledge, is not under any confidentiality obligation in respect of that information;
- D. it was lawfully in the possession of the Recipient before the information was disclosed by the Discloser;
- E. it is developed by or for the Recipient independently of the information disclosed by the Discloser; or
- F. the parties agree in writing that the information is not confidential.

11.3 In return for the Discloser making Confidential Information available to the Recipient, the Recipient undertakes to the Discloser that it shall:

- H. keep the Confidential Information secret and confidential;
- I. not use or exploit the Confidential Information in any way except for the Service;
- J. not directly or indirectly disclose or make available any Confidential Information in whole or in part to any person, except as expressly permitted by, and in accordance with this agreement; and
- K. not copy, reduce to writing or otherwise record the Confidential Information except as strictly necessary for the Service. Any such copies, reductions to writing and records shall be the property of the Discloser.
- L. The Recipient shall establish and maintain adequate security measures (including any reasonable security measures proposed by the Discloser from time to time) to safeguard the Confidential Information from unauthorised access or use.

11.4 Disclosure to Representatives

- A. The Recipient may disclose the Confidential Information to its Representatives, any of its Affiliated Entities, or their Representatives on the basis that it:
 - informs those Representatives, Affiliated Entities, or their Representatives of the confidential nature of the Confidential Information before it is disclosed; and
 - procures that those Representatives, Affiliated Entities, or their Representatives comply with the confidentiality obligations in Clause 11.3 as if they were the Recipient.
- B. The Recipient shall be liable for the actions or omissions of the Representatives, any of its Affiliated Entities or their Representatives in relation to the Confidential Information as if they were the actions or omissions of the Recipient.

11.5 Mandatory Disclosure

11.5.1. Subject to the provisions of this clause, a party may disclose Confidential Information to the minimum extent required by:

- A. an order of any court of competent jurisdiction or any regulatory, judicial, governmental or similar body or any taxation authority of competent jurisdiction;
- B. a request by a banking partner;
- C. the rules of any listing authority or stock exchange on which its shares or those of any of its Affiliated Entities are listed or traded; or
- D. the laws or regulations of any country to which its affairs or those of any of its Affiliated Entities are subject.

- (i) Before a party discloses any Confidential Information pursuant to Clause 11.5 it shall, to the extent permitted by law, use all reasonable endeavors to give the other party as much notice of this disclosure as possible. Where notice of such disclosure is not prohibited and is given in accordance with Clause 11.5 (i), that party shall take into account the reasonable requests of the other party in relation to the content of this disclosure.
